

Tableau Rubric

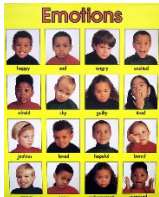

Group Members: _____

	1	2	3	4
IMAGINATION MIND	Group does not agree to pretend; does not react to imaginary sights, sounds, smells tastes, and textures	Group needs outside support; is rarely able to pretend and reacts to imaginary sights, sounds, smells, tastes, and textures	Group usually is able to pretend and react to imaginary sights, sounds, smells, tastes, and textures	Group consistently and imaginatively agrees to pretend and reacts to imaginary sights, sounds, smells, tastes, and textures
BODY POSITION SHOWS EMOTION	Group does not: - Pose with an audience's perspective in mind -Vary body levels or shape -Use any facial expression -Communicate meaning (the thoughts and feelings of the character) using body/face	Group is rarely able to: -Pose with an audience's perspective in mind -Use dramatic facial expression appropriate to thoughts and feelings of the character -Exaggerate expression for audience to see -Communicate consistent meaning	Group is usually able to: -Pose with an audience's perspective in mind -Use dramatic facial expression appropriate to thoughts and feelings of the character -Exaggerate expression for audience to see -Communicate consistent meaning	Group is consistently able to: -Pose with an audience's perspective in mind -Use dramatic facial expression appropriate to thoughts and feelings of the character - Exaggerate expression for audience to see -Communicate consistent meaning
FOCUS CONNECTION	Group: -Looks off to the side or all around -Remains out of character -Moves -Speaks	Group is rarely able to: -Keep focus inside the created Tableau -Remain in character -Remain frozen when prompted -Remain silent when prompted	Group is usually able to: -Keep focus inside the created Tableau -Remain in character -Remain frozen when prompted -Remain silent when prompted	Group is consistently able to: -Keep focus inside the created Tableau -Remain in character -Remain frozen when prompted -Remain silent when prompted
COOPERATION	Group members don't know what to do, are unable to work as an ensemble/team, do not share ideas, and are unwilling to resolve disagreements	Outside direction needed; group is rarely able to work as an ensemble/team	Group is usually able to work as an ensemble/team	-All group members are actively involved in the ensemble/team -Share roles equitably -Share leadership -Embrace new ideas -Value all members

Total: _____/16

Student Tableau Rubric

Name: _____

IMAGINATION MIND
BODY POSITION SHOWS EMOTION
FOCUS CONNECTION
COOPERATION 