Resources for Teaching Artists

Hartford Performs is here to support our teaching artists so we are including links to websites that can enhance and improve your programs and your effectiveness in and outside the classroom. Please share if you have other sites that would support our teaching artists and arts providers.

Teaching Artists Guild - National membership program for professional teaching artists

Arts Education Partnership - Information on advancing the arts in education through research, policy and practice

CT Arts Alliance - CT advocacy group that lobbies for the arts. Also includes information on the economic impact of the arts in CT.

Funding Opportunity - If you are an artist who's performance art is puppetry, here is a potential funding opportunity. Click here.

Updates to Hartford Public School Restructuring

On January 23, Hartford's Board of Education voted to begin restructuring the school district. Hartford Performs is here to support the district, schools and students during this transition. We will continue to provide equitable arts education to Hartford students and adapt to schools' changing needs.
